The Bend Honors . . .

MISS CEIL PODRUCH

Most students dream about a perfect teacher, but few really expect to find one. However, the students of West Bend High School are fortunate enough to have a number of teachers who come as near to achieving this goal as is possible. It is to Miss Ceil Podruch, one of these outstanding teachers, that the Class of 1958 dedicates the forty-third volume of THE BEND.

Any student who has had Miss Podruch as a teacher is fully aware of her ability in that respect. Her friendly understanding of weaknesses and recognition of ability, her respect for each individual contribution, and her inexhaustible patience have made her a favorite of all students.

But her inspiring influence is not confined to the classroom; her personal interest in all students and her work in extra-curricular activities have continually prompted students to achieve success in many fields. The German Club, an outstanding example of her work, is one of the largest and most active clubs in the school, and her forensics students continually represent us in state competition.

In recognition of her many contributions to life at West Bend High, we are proud to dedicate THE 1958 BEND to this excellent teacher, loyal friend, and wonderful person, Miss Ceil Podruch, a sincere educator.

With Pride We

Present . . . Our Campus

With Envy We

On February 1, 1957, ground was broken for a $1,500,000 addition to West Bend High School, which will be ready for occupancy in September 1958. As this new addition nears completion, interest grows on all sides, as well it should, for this ultra-modern building has facilities which, when completed, will greatly expand West Bend High's already excellent program. Needless-to-say, the seniors, though envious of these added opportunities, are eagerly awaiting their graduation exercises in the new gym.

The new addition not only will provide more classroom space but also will free additional space in the older part of the building for other uses. It will add fourteen teaching stations, including chorus and band rooms, two gyms, a swimming pool, health rooms, other miscellaneous high school classrooms, and some vocational school rooms. A fabulous multi-purpose activity room, for use of both students and other community residents, completes the list. Among the changes which will take place in the old building as a result of classroom relocations are the transformation of the old gym into a cafeteria and the use of the former cafeteria, band, and chorus rooms as regular classrooms. In addition, there are already six new tennis courts north of the building, and a new, more adequate parking area will be built to the south of the building to end our traffic problem.

Present . . .

The New Addition

The two new gyms and the swimming pool provided by the new building will offer a welcome addition not only to the physical education and athletic departments but also to the entire student body. We will finally have our own gym for basketball games and will be able to have uncrowded all-school assembly programs for the first time in years. Wrestling, volleyball, and swimming teams will probably be added to the list of competitive sports, and swimming and health classes will become a part of the physical education program.

The band and chorus rooms will meet the expanding needs of our band, chorus, and orchestra quite well. Both rooms will be equipped with risers and the most up-to-date and complete audio equipment available, and will provide at long last adequate practice room and storage space.

The multi-purpose activity room is another feature of the new addition. Open to the students during the day and to the community after school hours, it will provide entertainment, a large recreational area, and a snack bar. With the student senate working on plans for its use, a number of WBHS clubs have already contributed funds for furnishing the room with various forms of entertainment, such as a juke box, hi-fi, and TV. If properly used, the activity room should provide an excellent place for student recreation.

Principal Fred F. Schultz

Administration

West Bend High School is proud of the proficiency of its administration and personnel. Under their capable leadership and assistance, our school facilities, curriculum, and activities have functioned smoothly and progressively.

The efforts of our competent administration have served the student body well in organizing, advancing, improving, and regulating our complex system of education. Mr. Fred Schultz has served as our principal for the past six years, and Mr. Fred Holt is completing his tenth year as the superintendent of the West Bend Public Schools.

A capable and understanding faculty, numbering forty-nine teachers, has guided us along the paths of knowledge, lending a helping hand to those unsure of the way and encouraging our endeavors to achieve our goals.

Through careful planning, an excellent program is maintained. There are many electives from which we may choose. The co-curricular program is also one of excellence and engages the interests of most students. The club program has been expanded to almost every field of interest --- hobbies, foreign languages, skills, and careers. Extra-curricular activities offer opportunities for participation in sports, intramurals, dramatics, forensics, and social activities. Our guidance center offers an abundance of resources for college and career-bound students.

We could not get along without the aid of our office personnel, the work of the janitorial staff, and the nourishing meals provided by our cooks.

CLASSES

207 SENIORS WILL RECEIVE

The Senior Class Officers --- Secretary Bonnie Brown, Treasurer Mary Plischounig, President Steve Anderson, and Vice-President Judy German.

Seniors! Graduation! Yes, we had finally reached that point which four years ago seemed so unattainably distant. Yet, strangely enough, as we look back on September, 1954, when most of us enrolled and became a part of the Class of 1958, it seems as if it were only yesterday. The brief part of our lives that we have spent in high school and the many plans that we have made and fulfilled during that time will end on June 12, but the memory of it will still be vivid for many, many years. No, we won't forget the four fulfilled years we spent at WBHS for a long time.

Having set our goals high in our freshman year, we achieved many honors in both academic and extra-curricular fields. Besides doing our best in school-work, members of our class have worked hard in extra-curricular activities during these four wonderful years. Rehearsing songs for operettas, memorizing lines for plays and forensics, working on The Bend and Campus Clipper, enthusiastically cheering our teams on to victory at the games, campaigning for elections, decorating for dances until the very last minute, hopefully working on floats for homecoming, and actively participating in intramurals have kept us occupied during our daily life at WBHS.

In our freshmen year, we began our career by choosing as class officers those who we thought would be able to lead our class capably, and elected John Claybaugh as president; Steve Anderson as vice-president; and Sandra Sacia as secretary-treasurer. Bonnie Plout represented our class on the Homecoming Court. From the very start, we became active in band, chorus, debate, forensics, and sports. The annual May Ball was an important event we participated in.

A college representative discussed plans with Bill Held and Mr. Strohacker on College Day.

Our two cherry pie champs, Johanna Lehn, 1956 and 1957, and Elaine Boeker, 1955.

THEIR DIPLOMAS ON JUNE 12

As sophomores, we returned to WBHS hopeful and more sure of ourselves, since we now felt that we really belonged. Our skills in activities increased with experience, and we became even more outstanding in debate, forensics, dramatics, and music. Many of our classmates became noted for various abilities in athletics as well. This year our class officers were President Lynn Foell, Vice-President Tom Grey, and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Lewis. Laura Lindemann was chosen as our class representative on the Homecoming Court and Miss Noll's homeroom won in the float competition. Socially, our sophomore year was highlighted by the May Ball and the Post-Prom Party, both of which were very successful. Bonnie Brown was chosen queen of the May Ball and Dennis Rothenmaier king.

Returning as juniors with a broad outlook for a busy and exciting year, we set out with enthusiasm as upperclassmen. Filling class offices were John Claybaugh, president; Judy Rosenow, vice-president; and Susan Kissinger, secretary-treasurer. Carl Ziegler led the student body as president of the Student Senate; Diane Koenings was secretary-treasurer of the organization. Judy German was our candidate for homecoming queen and Mr. Schuelke's and Mr. Day's homerooms placed first and second, respectively, in the float competition. Members of our class again did outstanding work in all extra-curricular activities, and 25 were initiated into the National Honor Society. Then, following our decision to adopt a school ring, members of the class of 1958 became the first to wear this beautiful emblem of our school. To climax our junior year, we had our prom, which, as usual, kept us busy until the very last minute.

The long-awaited senior year finally arrived! To fill the important senior class offices, we elected Steve Anderson, president; Judy German, vice-president; Bonnie Brown, secretary; and Mary Plischounig, treasurer. Lynn Foell was elected president and Bill Held vice-president of the Student Senate. Our last homecoming was especially exciting when Bonnie Brown was chosen queen and Mr. Day's homeroom brought home top honors in the float competition for our class for the third consecutive year. The days slipped by so quickly and we were kept so busy that we hardly had time to realize we were doing things for the last time: Our last homecoming --- the parade, the bonfire, the game, and the dance; our last football game; our last Midwinter Formal; the fun-filled Hobo-Hop; our last basketball game; the last operetta; the last concert; the senior class play; our last prom; and finally --- graduation!

NEXT YEAR'S SENIORS BEGIN TAKING

The Junior Class Officers --- Secretary-Treasurer Mary Jo Thompson, President Pat Kenny, and Vice-President Carl Schmidt.

The Deltones --- Tom Haebig and Dick Faircloth, showed us their swinging singing style at the "Mistletoe Mixer."

The climax of our school days! Yes, at last we were juniors, recognized by all as upperclassmen.

We started our exciting third year with the election of our class officers. Pat Kenny was elected to serve in the dual role of class president and prom king. As his assistants, we elected Carl Schmidt vice-president and Mary Jo Thompson secretary-treasurer.

The school government also included a member of our class. Barbara Fuge served as secretary-treasurer of the student senate.

This year, the all-school plays displayed some of the many talents of members of the junior class. Barbara Eklo, Dick Faircloth, Pat Kenny, Judy Maxon, Gloria Willkomm, and many others represented us well in both the one-act plays and in "Golden Boy." Many juniors also took an active part in debate and forensics to promote a very successful year.

Homecoming was, as usual, a big event for us. At the Homecoming dance, Shelby Schenk and her escort, Dick Faircloth, our representatives on the court, proudly walked among the queen's royalty. Mr. Panfil's and Miss Podruch's homerooms brought us honor by winning the window competition and tying for third in the float competition respectively.

Junior boys showed skill in all of the athletic events of the school. Among our football heroes were Tom Bast, Dave Gonring, George Hess, Hilary Martin, and Jack Zallaps. On the basketball court, Dave Gonring, Bill Hudson, and Jack Zallaps contributed to our highly successful season, while many others both led the way and created competition in cross country, golf, skiing, tennis, and track. Four peppy junior girls, Anne Bauer, Barb Eklo, Judy Maxon, and Susie Umbs helped lead our cheering section.

On March 18, nine members of our class were initiated into the National Honor Society. Those chosen as having outstanding qualities of scholarship, character, leadership, and service were Nancy Bales, Bruce Berkholtz, Charlotte Frankow, Mary Gehl, Judy Liesener, Judy Nehrbass, Marilyn Pederson, Joan Race, and Carl Schmidt.

Of course, the biggest event of our junior year was our prom. We worked long hours preparing the decorations and making plans for this truly wonderful evening which we had looked forward to for so long. And we were not disappointed because our efforts were certainly rewarded when we saw the completely transformed gym, and all joined in the grand march behind King Pat Kenny and Queen Charlotte Frankow and their court. The decorations, centered around a Japanese teahouse in the front of the gym, created a realistic oriental atmosphere. Japanese lanterns, cherry blossoms, and distant mountains took everyone on a quick and exciting trip across the Pacific Ocean.

As we review the many achievements of our junior year, we sigh with regret at its departure, but look forward to next year and finally to becoming seniors.

SOPHOMORES HAVE POTENTIAL

At last! After months of weathering the trials of being freshmen, we had finally earned the privilege to possess the esteemed title of sophomores. And proud we were of it!

As sophomores we would participate in almost all of the activities of West Bend High, so we chose our class officers with care. Elected were John Klein, president; Bill King, vice-president; and June Schultz, secretary-treasurer.

The first activity on our calendar for this year was homecoming in the midst of the excitement of the football season. To represent our class on the court of honor we chose June Schultz. Her escort in the grand march was John Tollack. Mr. Runkel's homeroom made us very happy when it placed second in the float competition.

In sports, our sophomore boys starred on both the varsity and "B" teams. Bill King and Bob Stoffel were our heroes on the varsity football squad while John Klein and Bill King played on the "A" basketball team. On the "B" teams, Bob Arendt, Dave Bales, Joe Emanuele, Ken Hemauer, Jeff Hoy, Bob Klemp, Gary Koehn, Mike Limbach, Eugene Scharrer, and Bernie Spaeth were among the many who represented us. Backing the boys, sophomore girls took their places on the cheerleading squads. Penny Harth showed pep and enthusiasm on the "A" team, and Laurie Dunlop, Kay Knoebel, Kay Pleshek, Sally Stanfield, and Marilyn Yogerst cheered on the "B" team.

Many sophomores did fine work in the debate program. However, we are especially proud of Jim Holt, Mike Johnson, Mandy Weikum, and Steve Werner, who won the Little Ten Championship for West Bend. In dramatics and forensics, sophomores also excelled. Fine acting was done by several sophomores in the all school plays, while still others displayed talent in forensics.

The most important activity on our calendar was our Post Prom Party. The gym was magnificently decorated and entirely transformed to carry out the theme "Isle of Golden Dreams." An Hawaiian atmosphere prevailed with palm trees, a colorful mural, and hundreds of tropical flowers as decorations. The excellent entertainment provided a morning of fun for everyone who attended.

Another big social event on our sophomore calendar was the Mayball, which was held on May 9. The pastel-colored decorations, centered around a large May Pole, gave everyone a really festive feeling. The dance was highlighted by the presentation and crowning of the queen and her court.

Of all the happy occasions which were part of our sophomore year, one of the most memorable was the day on which we received our school rings. After that, we could truly feel like upperclassmen.

As we look back on the studying, extra-curricular activities, and social events which made our sophomore year a most successful and wonderful one, we are certain that it will never be forgotten in our book of memories.

FRESHMEN MAKE THEIR MARK

The class of 1961 made its first official appearance in this world on Friday, September 6, 1957 -- Freshman Day. We were somewhat confused as we entered the unknown world of West Bend High to become acquainted with our new teachers, surroundings, and classmates. In fact, some of us were actually lost for awhile; but as the weeks passed, we became more and more familiar with our new life and eventually began to feel at home --- even in the presence of upperclassmen. We really became a part of the school when we elected our class officers --- President Peter Berkholtz, Vice-President Rosemary Frankow, and Secretary-Treasurer Jane Bauer. Then, to make our citizenship complete, we elected homeroom senators and alternates to represent us in student government for the year.

The Freshman Party on September 20 gave us an opportunity to have fun and meet our classmates all at once. The games we played were loads of fun, the food was delicious, and it was nice not to have any upperclassmen around for a change.

The first big event of our high school career was homecoming. We watched proudly as our representatives on the court, Marie Bock, and her escort, Peter Berkholtz, took part in the grand march. We were also very pleased when Mr. Weier's homeroom won a prize for its float.

As the year passed, members of our class became active in many extra-curricular activities. We were well represented in the all-school plays by Sue Bast, Toni Beaumont, Lee Ann Puestow, Steve Roecker, Niles Sacia, Tom Schloemer, Eric Skuldt, Mervin Thompson, and John Weiss. Many freshmen competed in debate and forensics and brought our class its first speaking honors. Those freshmen who represented West Bend in the Little Ten Forensics Meet were Sue Bradley, Jeanne Hammes, Jeff Kurtz, Julie Simoneau, Karen Skuldt, Barbara Stube, and Eileen Theisen.

Our freshman boys did an excellent job in sports and will, we hope, continue to represent us well throughout the next three years. Cheering the boys on to victory were the freshman cheerleaders --- Barbara Becker, Kathy Eklo, Judy Mueller, Kay Schoch, and Jane Strenke.

On March 26, we were the early birds of the day as we boarded the train for our trip to Chicago. When we arrived there, glass-topped sight-seeing buses were waiting to give us a tour of the city. Later we went to the Museum of Science and Industry where we could look around on our own for about five hours.

One of the biggest events of our first year in high school was the May Ball. This freshman-sophomore sponsored dance not only was our first big dance but also brought the social year at West Bend High to a really exciting close.

As we shed the lowly title of freshmen this spring and become sophomores, all of us can look back with mixed emotions on the many events of 1957 and 1958 that made us a part of West Bend High. It certainly was a wonderful beginning for our four-year stay!

Once again the experts were wrong! The West Bend High football squad, given a "not to be feared" rating at the beginning of the season, fooled everyone and ended it with an impressive third place in the conference. With only nine returning lettermen, Coach Bob Caldwell and his assistant coaches Jack Runkel and Bob Strohacker overcame some first-game weaknesses to prove that a team need not be big to win.

The first game of the season, the traditional "bull dog" game against Port Washington, saw the Badgers get off to a poor start. We not only lost the game 13-6, but the starting quarterback, Bill Schaefer, also lost one of his new contact lenses early in the game. Although both teams and the referees crawled over the ground looking for it, the search was in vain.

By the next game, the team had improved, but not quite enough to whip Cooney. In a scoreless deadlock, Cooney gambled on a double-pan play and won the game 6-0.

The second defeat made the boys determined to win, and, showing a renewed spirit, they beat Horicon in our first home game, 6-0.

In the next two games, the Badgers finally settled down to earnest playing and showed that we really had a good team by mowing down Mayville and Waupun by scores of 7-0 and 42-6 respectively.

And then came the flu! With hardly enough boys left to have a good scrimmage, and with games being cancelled left and right (including West Bend vs. Ripon scheduled for October 18), the Badgers came up with enough reserve power to nose out Hartford 19-18 in a homecoming game which we were winning 18-6 at the half.

The game with Columbus, postponed because of the Asian flu epidemic, was played on Wednesday afternoon, November 6. Although Columbus was slightly favored, the Badgers, with some of the boys playing their last game for WBHS, easily trounced them 40-6 and finished the season on a happy note.

The 1957 season was certainly successful in comparison to the pre-season predictions, and the results again showed that the WBHS fighting spirit never fails when a challenge is present.

Speedy George Hess outruns the defense.

The Badgers played one daytime game.

CHAMPS!

*Win Win Win that's what we like
Coach Weier*

At the beginning of the '56-'57 season, there was talk of a basketball championship for West Bend High. The team had finished high the previous season and had a group of talented veterans returning. However, the troublesome jinx that had plagued WB basketball teams for over two decades again destroyed visions of a first Little Ten Championship.

The '57-'58 season, it was thought, would be no different. The team had three returning lettermen, guards Jack Zallaps, John Klein, and Bill Schaeffgen, but something had to be done about the forward line. Then three talented lads appeared who hadn't played the year before, Dave Schloemer, Willie Rusch, and Tony Spaeth. These three all helped tremendously, Dave being the fourth high scorer in Little Ten play.

The season began on a plaintive note as WB dropped two games to Port and Cedarburg. Then Little Ten play began with WB meeting arch-rival and pre-season favorite, Hartford. In a clash that will long be remembered, the Badgers pulled the first of many surprises from their bag of tricks by winning 51-46 and leaving little doubt as to their superiority.

And so went the season. Columbus was edged by a point on Dave Schloemer's game-winning basket, Berlin was beaten as Schloemer and Zallaps combined for 47 points, and Beaver Dam was beaten as Schloe-mer again led the assault. The Badgers had won four straight and were on the top conference rung.

Then disaster struck as Mayville dropped West Bend into a first place tie with Hartford, setting the stage for the return game at Hartford. The Orioles were up in arms as the Badgers invaded their nest, and excitement ran high. Hartford really had it as they dumped WB by 11 points, and it looked as if the time-worn jinx would survive another year.

WB got back on the right track the next week by dumping Cooney; and the next Badger victim, Ripon, fell in a double overtime joust in which Zallaps, Schaeffgen, and Dave Gonring pulled WB out of the fire. Waupun was trounced easily; and with a smile from Lady Luck, the team slipped past Horicon 52-51.

For West Bend, the equivalent of the four-minute mile had been accomplished --- they had won a Little Ten Basketball Championship.

Certainly no one deserves more credit than Coach Weier. His only regret was that he only had one suit of clothes to give for the championship, for it seems that he had a little encounter with a shower.

Coach Day's "B" team gave West Bend a clean sweep in basketball by also tying for their championship, thereby winning its second title in three years.

Congratulations to both teams!

TRACK

Hank Derleth of Beaver Dam and Bob Giombetti of West Bend received the Dillingoski Award for the outstanding athlete in the Little Ten. Bob, who, in the words of Coach Strohacker is the most outstanding track athlete West Bend High School has ever had, broke school records in broad jump, high jump, low hurdles, and pole vault and set Little Ten records in broad jump, high jump, and low hurdles. In addition, he placed fourth in the state and 11 out of 55 at the AAU Decathlon, the only high school athlete competing against top collegiate trackmen.

Shortly after the beginning of the second semester each year, danger lurks in the first floor hallway of West Bend High, and a noise similar to little boys playing cowboys and Indians emerges from that vicinity. The danger is that of being stampeded by the track team; the noise Mr. Strohacker's starting gun. And when this training began last February, there was great potential on the team in the form of a large number of returning lettermen, so Coach Strohacker was looking forward to a good season.

The 1957 season started, as usual, with the Madison West Relays. Three boys, John Claybaugh, Bob Giombetti, and John Hess, secured points to give West Bend a ninth out of twenty-three schools, which was outstanding considering the fact that it was their first year in Class A competition. In addition, Bob "Junie" Giombetti was the top individual scorer of the meet with eight points.

In the remaining portion of the season, the Badger cindermen won the Port Relays, the Little Ten Championship, and the West Bend Invitational. At the Little Ten Meet, Bob Giombetti again secured the most points, with Hank Derleth of Beaver Dam finishing a close second; and because the two finished so close, the judges awarded the Dillingoski Award jointly to both boys.

This year West Bend did not compete in the Fond du Lac sectionals but fought against really tough competition in Milwaukee, where Bob Giombetti was the only member of the team to qualify for the state meet. Bob went to the state and secured, by himself, enough points to give West Bend a fourth place. From there, he traveled to California to compete in the Decathlon for the second year. Here, facing some of the toughest collegiate competition in the nation, he placed 11 out of 55.

The success of the 1957 season was, of course, due to the fine work of the entire team, the coaches, and the managers. With lettermen Jim Britton, John Claybaugh, Bob Cooley, George Hess, John Indermuehle, Jerome Kedinger, Ray Roskopf, Willie Rusch, Dennis Rothenmaier, Allen Spaeth, Tony Spaeth, and Jack Zallaps and many other outstanding boys returning, the 1958 season holds a lot of promise for the cindermen.

CROSS COUNTRY

"Coach Weier's cross country team had another good season." This has become a pleasant and common statement at West Bend High since cross country was started as a competitive sport in 1952, and, needless-to-say, 1957 was no exception.

The Badger team, never at full strength because of the Asian flu and also handicapped by loss of their usual home course on account of construction work, had a very successful season. The harriers defeated Hartford, Ripon, and Berlin (twice), and tied with Beaver Dam in a meet when Asian flu had cut their numbers considerably. They also placed second in the Little Ten and seventh out of approximately twenty teams at the Hartford Invitational. During the season they were defeated only by Marquette High School and Sheboygan Central, the state champs.

The prospects for next year are even brighter; with all the members of the first team but senior Bill Wiedmeyer returning, Coach Weier is expecting a really top performance. Not only will he have lettermen Vincent Beder, Jim Charlton (1957 Captain), Jim Holt, Lyndon Rich, Tom Schowalter, and Ken Weddig returning, but Wiedmeyer was also the only senior on an exceptionally large team. Besides this, many freshmen members of the team hold great promise for the coming season.

SKI TEAM

Going to the first W. I. A. A. sponsored state ski meet at Wausau a little earlier than usual this year, the West Bend High School ski team was relatively unprepared for competition with the teams from the northern part of the state. While the squad had had only enough snow for about three practices, Wausau and most of the other teams had the advantage of three weeks of practice before the meet.

Nevertheless, on January 21, Coach Strohacker's ski team started bright and early to travel to Wausau for the meet. As usual, they went a day before the meet to practice and to enable the boys to become accustomed to the hill.

On Saturday morning, the downhill race was held. In this race, runners start at the top of the hill and race to the bottom; the winning time was 22 seconds. West Bend didn't fare too well in the morning races, but the team came through in the afternoon. On the slalom course, Wausau did an expert job and finished first in record time, while three West Bend seniors, Jeff Baxter, John Claybaugh, and Jim Marsden, out of our team of five qualified and finished fourth.

Returning for competition next year will be Gary Koehn, Hilary Martin, and Dave O'Meara. The prospects for the coming season again are promising.

TENNIS

With the unheralded arrival of old Father Spring, the local racketeers, lead by their leader, Coach Hildebrand, alias "Hit-that-Ball" Hildebrand, directed a vigorous assault in the vicinity of the city park. Object of the assault? Tennis courts! Weapons? Tennis rackets and balls! Purpose? Sharpening up of strokes and conditioning in general.

After the first few days of practice, the "Marshmallow Boys," as affectionately referred to by the "Powderpuff Nine," settled down to a nine game schedule and racked up a five-win and four-loss record. However, they were then confronted with an even bigger challenge, the Little Ten Championship. Although the team didn't return home with the highly-prized first place trophy, they did manage to place a respectable second, being nosed out by the highly-talented Cooney squad. Dick Metzger provided a bright spot for the Badgers by gaining the runner-up position in the singles competition.

From the Little Ten, the netmen proceeded to the Sectional Meet held at Fond du Lac. Although not faring too well in comparison with the previous conference meet, the squad came through quite honorably in the face of almost unsurmountable odds.

With this meet, the tennis season drew to a close. Needless to say, Coach Hildebrand has high expectations for the coming year with the addition of three new courts and the nucleus of his 1957 squad returning.

The 1957 season proved to be a mediocre one for the Badger linksters. The West Bend team competed in four conference meets against Hartford, Horicon, Mayville, and Oconomowoc. At these tourneys, the Badger team, consisting of Clyde Allen, Don Christensen, Pat Kenny, Arnie Weiss, and Carl Ziegler, chalked up two third places and two fourth places for the Red and White.

On May 20, the team competed in the Little Ten Conference Meet which was held on the Columbus course. After a very close contest, West Bend lost the championship but came out with fifth place.

At the Sectional Tournament which was held at Hartford on May 24, the Badger golfers came up with a much better showing. Capturing third place, they qualified for the state meet where they placed thirty-fourth.

Along with the varsity squad, the members of the "B" squad, John Hetland, Dick Hron, Jim Marsden, Jeff Baxter, and Jim Hron, spent many hours on the course working to make this a successful season.

With Ziegler, Kenny, and Allen returning for the 1958 season, Coach Grignon is hoping for a chance to regain the Little Ten Championship.

BASEBALL

"Take Me Out to the Ball Game" --- yes, the feeling that annually invades the entire country, and especially the area around Milwaukee, invaded West Bend on schedule last year. However, the fans weren't ready because the Badger baseball team had just changed to a summer schedule and did not start to play until June.

Playing a fourteen game schedule, Coach Kuss' team won 8 and lost 6. Two of the victories were especially noteworthy because they were over the Plymouth team, which, losing only these two games, won the Eastern Wisconsin High School Summer Baseball Championship.

Playing on the team were seniors Calvin Eickstadt, Bob Giombetti, John Hess, Dave Klein, and Warren Stern; juniors Dick Harter, Tom Heipp, John Indermuhle, and Willie Rusch; sophomores Dave Goring, Bob Harter, Tom Haebig, and Jack Zallaps; and freshmen Harvey Brodzeller, Stan Griesemer, Wes Griesemer, Ken Hemauer, Bill King, John Klein, Mark Mayer, and Bernie Spaeth.

With the end of the baseball season, a number of outstanding athletes finished their careers at West Bend High School, among them the team's leading batter and pitcher, Bob Giombetti. The captain of the team, elected at the end of the season, was Dave Klein.

The 1958 season, which will include both Little Ten Conference play in the spring and the summer program starting the second week in June, looks very promising. The team, part of which is pictured below, will consist of all the juniors, sophomores, and freshmen on last year's team, nine of whom won letters, plus Bob Arendt, Al Christ, Larry Lange, Dick Minch, and Mike Riebe.

INTRAMURALS . . . Opportunity for Everyone

In its sixth year, the intramural sports program enjoyed a very successful season during the 1957-58 school year. In his freshman year, each student is placed on one of the ten teams and remains there until he graduates. Points are awarded to the teams on the basis of participation and victories. Individual competition among the boys and girls of each class is another one of the many opportunities offered to the students by the intramural program.

Much credit for the smooth-running organization behind the program is due to the planning of the Intramural Board. The board consists of the following managers and alternates from each team: Badgers, Darlene Becker and Mike Riebe; Boilermakers, Carol Carstens and Norrita Oelhafen; Buckeyes, Laura Lindemann and Jerry Rate; Hoosiers, Willis Stauske and Sue Umbs; Illini, Sharon Kerry and Tom Heipp; Spartans, Jerry Wiedmeyer and Mary Jo Thompson; Wildcats, John Claybaugh and Judy Maxon; and Wolverines, Carol Birr and Bernie Stern. Also to be given credit for encouraging assistance are the faculty advisors: Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Kuss, and Mr. Panfil.

LEARNING THE THREE R's PLUS . . .

Daily assignments, term papers, book reports, projects, extra-credit work, tests, tests, and more tests --- what student wouldn't occasionally be glad to have those words removed from the English language! Needless to say, however, they represent not only the reason for West Bend High School's existence, but also the things that we spend a major part of our lives doing. With this in mind, we have presented in some of the preceding pages and present on these pages a glimpse of academic life, 1957-1958, at WBHS.

We Gotta Win, We Gotta Win, LET'S GO!

Second in importance only to our academic life at WBHS is the invisible power which binds us together as one body at sports events, forensics meets, music events, debate and dramatic tournaments, and other school functions --- school spirit. School spirit makes our cheerleaders what they are, makes us all attend school functions and be proud to sing the Alma Mater, and made the right answer to any question asked on February 21 "Beat Horicon." So we present to you a picture of school spirit as we see it --- in our peppy and enthusiastic cheerleaders, in the huge crowds that back our school activities, and in pep meetings -- the things which best represent that invisible yet omnipresent force.

ALL FOR THE FUN OF IT . . .

Completing the triangle of life at West Bend High are all the other things that we do --- parties, dances, plays, clubs, music, and fun for everyone. These pages are just an introduction to the rest of our student life section which tells the complete story of the many hours we spend together when school work is forgotten and fun and frivolity reign supreme.

FRIENDSHIP

Steve Anderson and his German family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Doell and their son, Ernst Ulrich.

George enjoys a fast game of ping pong.

During the 1957-1958 school year, there were three American Field Service Students at WBHS: Steve Anderson went to Germany during the summer, and Mary Mavroukakis and George Salguero came to us from Greece and Argentina. During the year we enjoyed having these AFS students as classmates. They told us of their countries, experiences, and ideas, helping to promote better understanding in both our school and community. At the Ambassador Ball, the important AFS fund raising activity, Mary and George led 21 other exchange students in the Grand March, while students in foreign costumes and the colorful decorations completed the international atmosphere.

Here Steve, Mary, and George tell their own story of life in another land.

STEVE ANDERSON WENT TO RATIGEN, GERMANY

This summer while living with the Doells, I spent most of my time with their 15 year old son, and it was through my "brother" that I met people and saw the area surrounding my "home."

I went to school with him several times and noticed some distinct differences between their school system and ours. In the German schools, time is spent on academic subjects, and there are comparatively few extra-curricular activities. In addition, they teach nothing of social life in the belief that such education should come in the home.

I also visited several of the main industrial centers of Europe and was amazed to see how well they have covered up the scars of the recent war.

Eight weeks is a short time, but I had a wonderful summer and learned a lot about Germany which I hope to be able to share with many others in the future.

MARY MAVROUKAKIS FROM ATHENS, GREECE

I have been with you for six months and have learned to admire you for your hospitality, frankness, friendliness, and lack of social distinctions.

Having seen many other parts of the United States, I feel lucky that I came to Wisconsin because I think that it is the most beautiful. To me, West Bend is a small, quiet, unforgettable place whose inhabitants always know what the others do. It surprised me that the people here expected me to be dressed differently, and I guess that I surprised them when I wasn't.

The celebration of my birthday and the telephone call home at Christmas were real pleasures for me and made me realize how wonderful and thoughtful the American people are. All these, in addition to my trip last August with 700 other AFS students, will always be among my best and most unforgettable memories.

GEORGE SALGUERO FROM CORDOBA, ARGENTINA

My first task in the United States as an American Field Service representative from Argentina was to dispel a few misconceptions which you had about my country. For one thing, you were surprised to find that Argentina has a European ancestry and that there are few Indians there. Many people were also surprised to find that I saw my first Negro in Miami.

As for my first impressions of American life, I was shocked by the number of huge cars and wooden houses. People here seem to be taller than South Americans, and the social life of Americans is also different.

During my seemingly short stay in West Bend, I have enjoyed many things, among them my first football and basketball games, an American circus, television, and your American girls. And for your wonderful Wisconsin hospitality and the Christmas present of a phone call to my folks --- "Muchas Gracias!"

HOMECOMING . . .

Bill Held, Senate VP, congratulates David Labott, finder of the toothpick.

"Not a Ghost of a Chance" won first prize for Mr. Day's homeroom.

Pep meeting speakers Lynn Foell, Reverend Baumer, Tony Spaeth, and Mr. Schultz, watch as the bonfire is lit.

"Because of the Asian Flu Epidemic, homecoming activities will be postponed for two weeks." This announcement was greeted with varied emotions in the halls of West Bend High on Wednesday, October 16. For those at home in bed with the flu, the postponement meant an opportunity to participate in the festivities, and for the "lucky" people who were still in school, it meant a chance to put some much needed finishing touches on floats, windows, and decorations. The final result was one of the most outstanding celebrations in the history of the school.

With the school population nearly back to normal, the traditional toothpick hunt on Thursday, October 31, sent students swarming all over the football field. Sophomore David Labott found the toothpick and received the honor of crowning the queen and lighting the bonfire.

The evening parade was certainly symbolic of the many hours of work spent by the homerooms in planning and building their floats. Everyone was sure that his would win, and speculation ran high as the thirty-two entries neared the end of the parade route.

Immediately after the parade, the lighting of the bonfire opened the pep rally at the Harvey Bruhy Memorial Field. As the flames reached skyward, we cheered, sang songs, and heard encouraging talks by Rev. Baumer, Mr. Schultz, Team Captain Tony Spaeth, and Student Senate President Lynn Foell. Then, weeks of suspense were ended when Bonnie Brown was crowned the 1957 Homecoming Queen.

Heaped high with boxes, floats, and everything else available, the bonfire burned brightly, then smoldered all night.

LATE BUT GREAT

On Friday, an official Red-and-White Day at West Bend High, the air was filled with excitement, and the game that evening climaxed the celebration when we met our arch-rival, Hartford. After a very close and exciting game, we emerged victorious, 19-18. At halftime, the band, in snappy marching formation, escorted the queen and her court onto the field, and, after saluting both teams, moved into a formation honoring the varsity players' dads. The dads were then introduced as a part of Dad's Night, which had been postponed from the previous week, and the band ended the colorful program with some intricate marching maneuvers.

"Night of Fascination," the dance following the game, made our 1957 Homecoming complete. Streamers of blue and white crepe paper and gleaming silver stars covered the ceiling, and a crescent moon on the stage completed the dazzling decorations. Excellent music by Arch Adrian's Orchestra added the finishing touches. But the decorations and music were certainly not the only attractions at the dance. At ten-thirty, silence came over the gym as Lynn Foell stepped up to the microphone to announce the float and window winners. Mr. Day's senior homeroom's float, "Not a Ghost of a Chance," took top honors; and in the window competition, Mr. Panfil's junior homeroom won first prize with "We're Breaking Into Victory." Immediately following this, Queen Bonnie Brown and King Bob Jermain led the Grand March, with juniors Shelby Schenk and Dick Faircloth, sophomores June Schultz and John Tollack, and freshmen Marie Bock and Peter Berkholtz comprising the Court of Honor.

THE PROM . . . OUR ISLE OF ENCHANTMENT

Nothing could be more delightful than a romantic evening of dancing on a tropical Isle of Enchantment, as all who attended the 1957 Junior Prom will agree. Lots of hard work had completely transformed the McLane Gym by the evening of Friday, April 26. One had only to step through the vine-covered lattice doors to be transported to a south-sea island complete with tropical vines, tall palms, and exotic flowers. Overhead drifted soft, white clouds of silk, through which sparkled millions of tiny stars.

Under a cluster of realistic palms was Larry Ladd's orchestra, which provided the music for the spell of enchantment.

Reigning over the event were Prom King John Indermuehle and his petite Queen Joan Ackerman. Included in their Court of Honor were Mary Plischounig and Russell Roecker, Darleen Nimtz and Bill Schaefer, Judy Rosenow and Joe Monday, Judy German and Dennis Rothenmaier, Susan Kissinger and Dick Shaw, Kitty Taylor and Steve Anderson, Bonnie Plout and Ray Roskopf, Sara Wolf and Lynn Foell, Bonnie Brown and John Claybaugh, and Donna Pomahac and Todd Heil.

Later, leaving their island, the dancers attended the Post-prom Party, a colorful, gay, and exciting Mardi Gras, sponsored by the sophomore class. The high school gym, too, had been transformed by bright balloons, colorful streamers, and realistic Mardi Gras characters. The program, emceed by Al Buettner, included lunch, music by Gene Samsy's "Modernaires," and other entertainment. Dancing contests and several hilarious games brought the truly wonderful evening to a close.

the star-studded sky of our island.

The post-prom party provided entertainment in the form of music, dancing, and riotous games like this one.

"Silver Bells"

A sensation of delight and amazement filled everyone as he entered this year's midwinter formal because a truly enchanting feeling filled the air. A gigantic silver bell, carrying out the theme of the dance, gracefully accented the center of the sky of blue and white streamers while evergreen trees surrounding the gym completed the sparkling decorations.

In the midst of "Silver Bell Land" students, alumni, teachers, and residents of West Bend and the surrounding communities gathered to renew old friendships as well as to have a wonderful time dancing to the music of Cullen Casey's Orchestra.

The A Cappella choir, which sponsored the dance, and particularly co-chairmen Dick Baer, Barbara Hron, and Judy Rosenow, certainly deserve credit for a job well done in making the midwinter a success. Merrie Heil, who did the art work, is also to be congratulated for the wonderful job that she and her assistants did on the decorations.

Surely when the thoughts of those who attended the 1957 midwinter formal wander back to their high school days, that evening of dancing and "Silver Bells" will be among their most prominent memories.

Upper --- Alumni Dave Fuge and Nan Schuelke and students Mary Plischounig and Lynn Foell danced under the big silver bell.

Middle --- Two and one-half couples, John Steilen, Marie Bock, Tom Haebig, Toni Beaumont, and Don Vaclavik, danced to the dreamy music.

Lower --- Dick Metzger and Marge Muecke, UWM students, enjoyed their favorite pastime.

"Antigone" ...

"The Boor" ...

"Hello Out There" ...

Dramatics gained tremendously in popularity at West Bend High School this year as students learned of the enjoyment which could be derived from it. Evidence of this was seen not only in the increased participation and number of performances, but also in the audience reaction to the presentations. The three one-act plays presented by the dramatics department on October 25 and 26 and the many favorable comments which followed them were excellent evidence of this.

"Hello Out There," a drama directed by Mr. Freeman, put the evening's entertainment into full swing. Dick Faircloth gave an outstanding performance as the "young man," supported by Sandra Gerhardt, Bob Guse, Diane Koenings, Lee Ann Puestow, and Don Winninghoff.

A humorous note was added to the evening by "The Boor," which was directed by Mr. Hafemann. John Tollack as Grigori Stepanovitch Smirno, a graying bachelor, and Sue Bast as Helena Ivanovna Popov, a mournful widow, were at odds over a debt. However, the play ends happily when these differences are romantically resolved. An amusing part of the maid portrayed by Gloria Willkomm and other roles played by Toni Beaumont, Janice Roecker, and Mervin Thompson added greatly to the success of this play.

Grigori Stepanovitch Smirnov (John Tollack) proposes to Helena Ivanovna Popov (Sue Bast) as the maid (Gloria Willkomm) gleefully witnesses the occasion.

led the way to an outstanding performance. Jim Barber, Lee Hembel, and Dick Olson acted as guards, and John Weiss portrayed the messenger who brought news to the queen, Barbara Eklo. The classic tragedy would not have been complete without the Greek Chorus composed of Carmen Conjurski, Bob Hammen, John Klein, Judy Maxon, Niles Sacia, Judy Schleif, Tom Schloemer, Eric Skuldt, Sandy Strean, Mary Jo Thompson, and Susie Umbs. Our exchange student from Greece, Mary Mavroukakis, read the prologue to the play.

"Antigone" was entered in the district dramatics contest at Marquette High School where it received an A rating, in the regional contest at Whitewater where it also received an A, and in the state competition at Eau Claire where it received a B. Congratulations to Miss Puhl and her entire cast for this excellent record!

Cast members of "Hello Out There" in the final scene are Sandra Gerhardt, Don Winninghoff, Diane Koenings, Lee Ann Puestow, Dick Faircloth, and Bob Guse.

"GOLDEN BOY"

History was made in West Bend High School play presentation when a new experiment was successfully put on trial before the public on February 13 and 14. A new club this year, the West Bend High School Play Production Club, undertook the production of Clifford Odet's Broadway play, "Golden Boy," in the theater-in-the-round.

Miss Marial Puhl, who was the instigator and director of the drama, felt that the curtainless stage, completely surrounded by the audience, created a more realistic and intimate effect. Because no curtains at all were used in this production, all scene changes took place in the dark right before the interested eyes of the audience.

The drama concerned a boxing manager's attempt to exploit a young Italian immigrant, Joe Bonaparte, who seemed to have potential as a boxer but who also was a talented violinist. Steve Anderson played Tom Moody, the manager, and Bob Jermain portrayed Joe. A romantic triangle was formed between Joe, his manager, and Lorna Moon, who was played by Judy Maxon. John Claybaugh did an outstanding job as Joe's Italian father, and Bill Held, Donna Pomahac, and John Landdeck were seen as members of the Bonaparte family. A studious friend of the family, Mr. Carp, was portrayed by Dennis Rothenmaier, while Dick Faircloth was seen as Eddie Fuscilli, Dick Schaefer as Roxy, and Henry Schowalter as Tokio. Completing the cast were Jeff Baxter, Tom Haebig, Todd Heil, George Hess, Pat Kenny, Joel Kirsch, and Jerry Wardius. Henry Knuth, a member of the orchestra, provided the violin music for the play.

This experiment was not only appealing entertainment for the audience, but also an unusual challenge for the director, Miss Puhl; producers; and cast, all of whom did an excellent job.

"HARVEY"

The Senior Class play, "Harvey," written by Mary Chase, was presented on April 18 and 19 in the McLane gym. The play, directed by Mr. Hafemann and produced by Mr. Freeman, drew a crowd of approximately 1,000 people.

The play featured an unusual family consisting of Veta Simmons, portrayed by Janice Roecker, her brother Elwood Dowd, played by Ken Driessel, Veta's strangely normal daughter Myrtle Mae (Yvonne Weasler), and Elwood's closest companion, Harvey, an imaginary rabbit, seen by no one but Elwood.

Veta, recognizing her brother's abnormality, made plans for committing him to a sanatorium. However, while talking to Doctor Sanderson, played by Dick Hron, she confidentially mentioned that she also saw Harvey at one time. This statement aroused suspicions, and Veta was placed under hospital care to be supervised by Doctor Chumley (Carl Ziegler), and his nurse (Judy German). The plot became more complex when not only Veta and Elwood, but also Doctor Chumley, saw Elwood's rabbit friend.

This confusing situation between Veta, Elwood, Doctor Chumley, and Harvey continued, and at the end of the play, Harvey was permanently established as a member of the Dowd household.

Other members of the senior class who took part in this traditional event were John Herlin (Judge Omar Gaffney), Bill Held (E. J. Lofgren), Bonnie Benedict (Betty Chumley), Dick Schaefer (Duane Wilson), Jeanette Johnson (Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet), and Erika Wingert (Miss Johnson). Their performances added considerably to this confusing but delightful comedy.

Little Ten Champs Mandy Weikum, Steve Werner, Mike Johnson, and Jim Holt.

For the second time in four years the West Bend debaters won first place honors in the state tournament. After losing the NFL Championship to Sheboygan Central in a play-off, West Bend came out on the top in the state meet and thus qualified for the national tournament at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, in June.

This success shown by the varsity at the state tournament had been indicated in previous invitational tournaments. The West Bend varsity, composed of Carl Ziegler and Joe Zenk on the affirmative and Bonnie Benedict and Steve Bauer on the negative, won all but two of the tournaments in which it competed.

To start out this year's season, the West Bend debaters journeyed to Milwaukee to witness a debate by debaters from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and Marquette University on the question for the year: "Resolved: That Direct Economic Aid to Individual Countries Should Be Limited to Technical Assistance and Disaster Relief." A week later, West Bend debaters played host to 500 students, coaches, and judges from schools in Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. This first invitational tournament of the season was held in all four West Bend public schools. Following this, debaters spent their weekends from mid-November to the end of January debating at schools in the southern and central sections of the state.

Not only the varsity, but also the "B" and "C" squads had commendable records during the season. One "B" team composed of sophomores Steve Werner, Mandy Weikum, Jim Holt, and Mike Johnson represented West Bend at the Little Ten Tournament at Hartford and won first place honors.

That the teams were again so successful is due not only to the enthusiastic and diligent work of the students, but also to the work of their coach, Bruce Bertram, who has continually done an outstanding job in debate at WBHS during the past eight years. Congratulations to Coach Bertram and his entire team for their outstanding record.

FORENSICS

Forensics has always been a popular activity at West Bend High, and this year more students than ever participated in it. In the beginning, about 150 students joined in the preparation and practicing that produces the successful teams West Bend High always has. After the all-school contest, further activity was limited to a freshmen-sophomore team of 18, which took second place at the Little Ten Freshman-Sophomore Meet, and the all-school Little Ten team of 20. This team placed first in the Little Ten Tournament, and Bonnie Benedict, John Herlin, Mary Plischounig, Kitty Taylor, Pat Randall, Nellie Scanlon, Henry Schowalter, Yvonne Weasler, Susan Anderson, Laurie Dunlop, Dick Faircloth, Lynn Foell, Jim Holt, Steve Werner, and Carl Ziegler went on to compete in the district meet at West Allis. Here the latter seven qualified for the state contest on April 12 where Dick, Lynn, Jim, Steve, and Carl received "A's."

In addition to the Wisconsin High School Forensic League tournaments, the annual National Forensic League Contest was held at Ripon on April 25 and 26. Participating in this contest were Jim Holt and Mike Johnson in extemporaneous speaking, boys' division; Bonnie Benedict and Yvonne Weasler in extemporaneous speaking, girls' division; Lynn Foell and Carl Ziegler in original oratory; Steve Werner in non-original oratory; Laurie Dunlop in serious declamation; and Bonnie Brown in humorous declamation.

All of the students who participated are very appreciative of the fine help they received from the members of the faculty who coached forensics: Miss Puhl, Mrs. Williams, Mr. Freeman, Mr. Hafemann, Mrs. Hansen, Miss Ridgeway, Miss Krepsky, Miss Podruch, Mr. Hahn, and Miss Yahr, and thanks and congratulations are certainly due to Miss Frandsen, director of the program.

Participating in play reading, the new forensics division, were Jeanne M. Weiss and Jim Barber.

BEND

Putting the news on ice is a good way to express the job of the Bend Staff. While WBHS students were out making news, the Bend Staff was constantly getting pictures and copy to present a complete and interesting history of the school year.

This year the job of coordinating the year's events into a pleasing but different combination of copy, pictures, and headlines fell upon co-editors Helga Bakemeyer, Barb Bauman, and Lynn Gieringer. Although probably the greenest editors ever given the job, we eventually got accustomed to the routine and chased photographers, copy writers, and VIP's until we were blue in the face; wrote captions and heads until our last drop of originality was gone; and managed somehow to get copy to the printer.

However, our work would have been impossible without the aid of the entire Bend Staff. Those who wrote stories, indexed pictures, identified people, typed copy, and brought food were quite necessary to the success of this publication. Also indispensable were the people who sold sponsorships: Joan Ackerman, Steve Anderson, Jeff Baxter, Darlene Becker, Bill Held, Barb Hron, Bob Jermain, Jim Marsden, Darlene Nimtz, Vic Pribyl, Sue Umbs, Erika Wingert, and Sara Wolf. Special recognition should also be given to Business Manager Steve Anderson and Advertising Manager Bill Held for their valiant attempt to keep us out of the red and to our very helpful and willing advisors: Mr. Baxter, Mr. Benson, and Miss Krepsky.

As we near the completion of the '58 Bend, the staff can look back on it and say, "It was work, but we wouldn't have missed it for anything."

CLIPPER

The numerous new and traditional events which occurred during the '57-'58 school year were reported to the student body by "The Campus Clipper." Every two weeks, WBHS students eagerly read the excellent editions of the Clipper.

Although little is seen or heard of the Clipper between issuance dates, much time and work is spent on this publication behind the scenes. Under the guidance of Miss Hegbar, Mr. Kuckuk, and Miss Kuethe, co-editors Joan Ackerman and Darlene Nimtz headed the busy Clipper Staff. The staff was divided into various departments whose heads reported regularly to the editors-in-chief.

John Herlin acted as Sports Editor with Steve Bauer, Carol Carstens and Bill Klemp as his assistants. Serving as Feature Editor was Bonnie Brown, while Ann Weinert headed the art department. The important job of head vari-typist was held by Janice Roecker, and Barbara Stauske, Donna Liegl, Lois Knoebel, Jeanette Johnson, Joanne Bever, and Marilee Lemke also offered their services for this time-consuming job. Photo Editors Dianne Johnson and Judy Powell worked with photographers each week setting up the many pictures which added greatly to the appeal of the Clipper. The business and finances of the Clipper were handled by business manager Helga Bakemeyer; Pat Jacobs directed the circulation department.

Mrs. Williams' journalism class, as usual, aided the staff with their frequent stories and features, and members of this class will supervise next year's publication.

The entire staff, as well as many unmentioned helpers, deserve credit and thanks for a fine record which will be remembered by all.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

SET TO MUSIC

"Music is the language that begins where words leave off."

On the football field, in the crowded balcony at the basketball games, at the concerts, and in the parades down the street, the West Bend High School Band has been a perfect example of the language of music. When the coaches had said their last words to the football and basketball players at the games, when the tickets for the concert had been taken at the door, and when the streets had been filled with people anxious for the parade to start, the magic language of the band began.

During the 1957-1958 school year, the West Bend High School Band began by performing at the football games. The unfolding of each halftime show revealed the accomplishments of the band's daily practice sessions. Their job was well done, too, for it increased the pep of the fans and gave the players the backing they needed.

As the year progressed, the snappy Pep Band at the basketball games and pep meetings continued to give entertainment as well as spirit to students. At four of the dances following basketball games, the Swing Band provided an evening full of fun and frolic.

Through the band solo and ensemble program, the students presented the magic language of music to their parents and people of the community by playing at Open House, various clubs in town, and WBKV, the local radio station.

As time for the annual spring concert, which was held on March 23, approached, various sections of the band worked hard in their little groups polishing up the rough spots in the numbers, and weekly lessons given to each member contributed greatly to its success. The numbers ranged in moods from "Ballet Egyptian" to "Morning, Noon, and Night" to the rhythmic "Castillia." Other numbers on the program were "The Ides of March"; Prelude and Processional; "Thoughts of Love," a baritone solo by Richard Baumer; and "Nola," an alto sax solo by Judy Nehrbass.

Only under the leadership of Mr. Shlimovitz could the band have maintained the high standards of musicianship which it did. Certainly, his skill and insistence for high standards have helped many students to express themselves in the wonderful language of music.

"Oklahoma!" Thrills Capacity Audiences

Under the guiding hand of Mr. Cupery, the choral department enjoyed an eventful season during the 1957-1958 term. The total membership of the various choruses included about 180 students.

All of the choruses participated in the traditional Christmas and Spring Concerts, while smaller groups presented programs for the student body and community organizations. In December, the choruses again had an opportunity to work with the noted musician and conductor, Don Craig, and the A Cappella Choir took part in the New Materials Clinic held in Milwaukee during Teachers' Convention.

The highlight of the choral year was the presentation of Rodgers and Hammerstein's "Oklahoma!" on March 4 and 5. The first royalty-rights production the department has attempted, "Oklahoma!" was very popular with the capacity audiences which attended the performances. The production culminated months of work by Mr. Cupery and his cast and crew of over 75 students. In addition, the background music by the newly-formed Community Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Schleif; the realistic stage settings designed and executed under the direction of Joel Cook; the colorful costumes; the eye-catching dances; and the beautiful songs, all added much to the success of the show.

At the end of another busy year, the feelings of the whole department can best be summed up in the words of the "Oklahoma!" song:

*"Oh, what a beautiful mornin'
Oh, what a beautiful day ---
I got a beautiful feelin'
Everythin's goin' my way!"*

DEMOCRACY AND ACTION

To promote the welfare of the student body is the aim of the West Bend High School Student Senate.

First of the activities on the agenda for the Senate this year was Homecoming, held three weeks later than originally scheduled because of the Asian flu epidemic. Bill Held, Student Senate vice-president, was in charge of all Homecoming activities.

One of the major campaigns of the Senate was to secure the backing of the student body at school functions. As a part of this campaign, it sponsored "Golden Boy" and promoted cupcake sales for the A. F. S. students. In an effort to alleviate the litter situation, posters, litter-bags, and other receptacles were placed around the school. The senate also discussed and made plans for the all-school Variety Show, which will be given next year; assisted with Dad's Night, College Day, Awards Day, Freshmen Day, and Red and White Day; and supervised class elections.

Spending countless hours to make the Student Senate successful this year were its officers, President Lynn Foell, Vice-President Bill Held, and Secretary-Treasurer Barbara Fuge.

Investigating the progress of the new swimming pool are Senate Vice-President Bill Held, President Lynn Foell, and Secretary-Treasurer Barb Fuge.

"Un"-littering the halls was a major project of the senate this year; Russ Roecker, Mike Johnson, Virginia O'Meara, and Patsy Lange helped publicize the campaign.

SCHOLARSHIP . . . CHARACTER . . . LEADERSHIP . . . SERVICE . . .

Rewarding juniors and seniors outstanding in scholarship, character, leadership, and service is the purpose of the National Honor Society. It not only recognizes students with these qualities, but also tries to encourage them in other students as well. Any junior or senior who has been enrolled in WBHS for one semester and fulfills these qualifications is eligible for membership. Their scholastic rating must be 3.1 or better.

The West Bend Chapter of the National Honor Society has been in existence since May of 1950.

There were a few changes made this year in the society; officers were elected only once, serving for both semesters, and only one initiation was held, that taking place on March 18.

Seniors who were initiated into NHS during their junior year and formed the membership of the club for the beginning of the year were Joan Ackerman, Steve Anderson, Barbara Bauman, Bonnie Benedict, Bonnie Brown, Ken Driessel, Lynn Foell, Judy German, Lynn Gieringer, Judy Haugen, Bill Held, John Herlin, Barbara Hron, Susan Kissinger, Darlene Nimtz, Victor Pribyl, Judy Rosenow, Sandra Sacia, Bill Schaeffen, Barbara Stauske, Yvonne Weasler, Erika Wingert, Sara Wolf, Laurine Zautner, and Carl Ziegler. Officers for the school year were Lynn Foell, president; Steve Anderson, vice-president; Judy Rosenow, secretary; and Bonnie Brown, treasurer.

Those students who became members of the society in March, 1958 were seniors Steve Bauer, Lucy Beck, Joanne Bever, Elaine Boeker, Florence Justman, Norrita Oelhafen, Phylis Peters, Mary Plischounig, Janice Roecker, Nellie Scanlon, Gordon Schloemer, Allen Spaeth, Kitty Taylor, and Joe Zenk; and juniors Nancy Bales, Bruce Berkholtz, Mary Gehl, Charlotte Frankow, Judy Liesener, Judy Nehrbass, Marilyn Pederson, Joan Race, and Carl Schmidt.

BADGER STATE . . . Practically Government

With suitcases and blankets dangling from every limb, Steve Anderson, John Claybaugh, Don Hemauer, John Herlin, and Carl Ziegler headed for Ripon College last June as West Bend's representatives to Badger Boys' State.

After opening day on June 8th, the WBHS boys began a vigorous week of BBS activities. In the morning, they attended a school of their choice which taught them the functions of various offices. Steve Anderson and John Claybaugh were elected senators and Don Hemauer assemblyman, thus making use of their new education.

In the afternoon, the boys took part in sports and music activities. Of the WBHS boys, John Claybaugh placed first in pole vaulting, John Herlin made the tennis semi-finals, and Carl Ziegler vigorously pounded a drum in the BBS Band.

The evening was undoubtedly the best part of the day. From every corner of the Ripon campus, boys crammed into the gymnasium for the evening assembly. They chanted unceasingly for favorite candidates, patriotically sang "America," and after the program happily but wearily left the gym.

However, the week slipped by quickly and the Badger Boys headed back to West Bend with many happy memories. Although the primary purpose of BBS was to educate Wisconsin youth in the privileges, rights, and responsibilities of American citizenship, the local boys found that making friends and understanding others were among the benefits of the session.

Shortly after the Badger Boys left the Ripon campus, the Badger Girls invaded the University of Wisconsin. On June 25, four West Bend High girls, Barbara Bauman, Carol Klein, Darlene Nimtz, and Judy Reinders, traveled to Madison to represent various chapters of the American Legion Auxiliary at the session.

From the time they registered one Tuesday to the time they left the next Tuesday, the girls found every minute jam-packed with interesting and exciting things to do. In fact, between lectures, meetings, campaigns, elections, inaugurations, band and chorus rehearsals, and making new friends, there was hardly time to sleep. Especially memorable were the legislative sessions they held in the capitol, Governor Thomson's address, and the visit of the BBS Governor on the last night. During the week, all four were elected to some city, county, or state office, and Barb was an editor of "Badger Tales," the daily newspaper.

But all good things must come to an end, and the girls soon found themselves saying goodbye to the wonderful friends, counselors, and experiences of Badger Girls' State. The American Legion Auxiliary and the UW Extension Division who co-sponsored the event certainly provided a good education in government for all who attended; needless to say, both BBS and BGS were "practically government."

The Badger Staters --- Steve Anderson, Barb Bauman, Carl Ziegler, Carol Klein, Don Hemauer, Judy Reinders, John Herlin, Darlene Nimtz, and John Claybaugh.

AWARDS DAY

Sue Strodthoff and Ken Driessel received the D. J. Kenny-B. C. Ziegler Co. Debate Awards from Mr. Kenny.

Mr. Kuss presented Dan Hoy with the Bausch and Lomb Science Award, and Laurine Zautner received the Nina E. Britton Music Award from Mrs. Wilfred Butler.

AS THE INK DRIES . . .

"Immediately if not sooner, yesterday if possible," was a trite saying we jokingly tossed around during the early months of the year. However, later on when things began popping left and right, it was no longer a joke. Writers were told to get on the ball before it rolled away, photographers frantically rushed around snapping pictures, the engraver started getting rush notices, we pushed the panic button, and the printer waited patiently for last-minute copy. Off to a slow start, the '58 Bend finally reached the press.

We greatly appreciate the work of the many people who contributed to the '58 Bend and especially those who rushed --- and waited --- as deadline time drew near. The editor-pecked writers, the teachers, the coaches, and the administration; Bob Boltz, Gordon Schloemer, Hollywood Studios, Kind Studios, Laux Studios, and the West Bend News, whose many excellent pictures tell the story of our school year; the engraver, Mr. Olson of Brock Engraving Company, Madison, Wisconsin; the printer, the Washington County Publishing Company, and especially Joe Huber, who, probably against his better judgment, patiently endured our inexperience and carefree attitude; our advisors, Mr. Baxter, Mr. Benson, and Miss Krepsky; and our sponsors, all deserve our sincere thanks for a job well done.

And now, although we are forced regretfully to admit that this is the end of the Bend, we must also admit that we are looking forward to reacquiring a few mislaid habits such as sleeping and having leisure time. We hope that your name has been spelled correctly and that your picture hasn't been left out or identified incorrectly, but, if this is the case, please don't bother to tell us, we can't correct it anyway.

the summer. Good luck as a soph.
Paul

Jim,
Best of luck to you in future years.
I certainly was fun having you in my social studies class. I hope Mr. Lakebe didn't mind our class too much.
See you next year.
Hinda Baumann

Bubbles,
Have a nice summer and don't eat too much.
Your
